Mary Surefoot is just one of the many people in our world who is obsessed with collecting... shoes! At the insistence of Spare Parts Puppet Theatre, Mary has agreed to bring us just a crumb of a piece of toast of her magnificent shoe collection. Shoes can tell so much and Mary has so, so many shoes... join Mary as she brings her shoe collection to life. Watch as stilettos morph into opera singers, boots turn into boats and runners are revealed as space ships! Welcome to the fantastical world that is The Mary Surefoot Shoe Collection. You will never look at a pair of shoes the same way again... and you will never forget the lovable Mary Surefoot.

Fremantle Street Arts Festival

Www.fremantle.wa.gov.au

T Fre -info 9432 9888

This year's Street Arts Festival is bigger than ever, running for four days over the Easter break (Saturday 23 to Tuesday 26 April) and featuring a wide range of free events, family friendly shows, astonishing physical feats and surprises where you least expect them.

Be entertained by international acts such as the unique Japanese-English act Funny Bones. Marvel as this act dip into their toy box of creative street tricks. Combining everything from amazing puppetry to voice percussion, circus skills and magic! Check out local home-grown talent with Fremantle-based WA Circus School and FunkarillaZ. And catch the 20-year superstar, Lucky Diamond who is also the Guinness World Record holdmost tattooed person (with only one tattoo!).

Bring your family and friends down to Fremantle over the Easter break where you will find performances on the street during the day and a smorgasbord of cabaret, improvisation and comedy on offer into the night.

Program available from Monday 11 April to download .
