JENKINS, Christopher

I live in Beaconsfield, and work as a mental health nurse at Fremantle Hospital.

I was active in the campaign to halt Roe 8, and am passionate about sustainable transport solutions. I'm an active co-founder of the Anti-Poverty Network Perth, a group campaigning around public housing and an immediate increase to Newstart. I am also proud to be the ANF and the OSH representative in my workplace.

I believe in local participatory democracy and grassroots solutions to big issues. I commend the many inclusive and environmentally conscious projects our council has spearheaded and I hope to contribute to this work.

Issues I advocate for include: local climate action, reactivating the Beaconsfield Precinct Group, support for community projects in Beaconsfield and Hilton, affordable housing for all, inclusive and accessible community spaces and activities, sustainable and comprehensive public transport, and celebrating Walyalup's indigenous culture and history.
