G. F. Dedman was born in 1895, grew up in North Fremantle and was one of thirteen children. He apprenticed as a butcher opening his own shop at 133 Stirling Highway in 1923 - 1950 in the building recently operated as Mojo's and formerly The Stoned Crow wine bar. He lived opposite at 1 Harvest Street now operating as Harvest Café. A respected community member, in 1947 he was elected Mayor of North Fremantle a position he held until his death in 1950.
