

Above

- 28 Abraham 'Izzy' Orloff
Declaration of Fremantle as a City - June 3, 1929
 Silver gelatin photograph
 64 .5 x 78 cms
 City of Fremantle Civic Collection

Proclamation of the City. Photograph taken in front of the Fremantle Town Hall. Above is the old coat of arms for the Council with the motto "Nec prece nec pretio" which reads "neither by entreaty nor bribery ... to be drawn from the right path".

- 29 Unknown
City of Fremantle Free Lending Library September 6, 1949.
 Silver gelatin photograph
 69 x 82 cms
 City of Fremantle Civic Collection

Interior of the Fremantle Free Lending Library at 13 South Terrace, later known as the Evan Davies Civic Library (now Dome Coffee Shop). Betty Secker is at table in the foreground, Mrs Mabel Francis at other table and Mrs Lily Organ of Fothergill Street at the issue desk. Miss Flora Anderson (City's first Librarian) is with elderly borrower, Mrs Sloan.

- 30 Unknown
Opening of City of Fremantle Free Lending Library September 5, 1949.
 Silver gelatin photograph
 67 x 76 cms
 City of Fremantle Civic Collection

From left; Mrs Flora Anderson (City's first Librarian), J.S. Battye General Secretary WA Library, Museum and Art Gallery (1912 - 1954), Councillor Evan Davies.