Introduction

This City of Fremantle events package is designed to assist you in the successful planning and implementation of your event.

For events up to and including 50 patrons, completed application forms must be submitted to the City's bookings officer along with any further required documentation a minimum of four weeks in advance of your event

For large scale events 500 patrons and above, your completed application form and additional documentation should be submitted a minimum of three months in advance of your event.

Any applications submitted outside of these times will only be processed at the discretion of the City.

Once an assessment of your application has been completed, the fees applicable for holding your event are determined and a City officer will issue an approval document or agreement outlining all fees, charges and terms and conditions of hire.

Information

This events package provides a guide outlining the requirements for staging an event within City of Fremantle. Following this guide will assist you in producing a successful event.

Application procedure

As several parties and departments are involved in the events approval process, the first point of contact for event applications is the City's events officer, who is able to determine whether your proposed event falls within the City's policy guidelines and if the venue requested is suitable and available. Once this information has been determined then the event application form needs to be completed and returned to the events officer who will assess your application.

The event application form sets out all of the relevant questions required in order for the City to properly assess the application submitted and come to a decision on whether the event will be granted approval.

The application form included with this events package must be completed in full, ensuring all questions in the package are answered, or marking not applicable if necessary.

Depending on the requirements of your event, you may be required to liaise with other City departments as needed and where advised by the events officer.

For events above 500 patrons, or as otherwise required by the City, you will be invited to an operations meeting along with other relevant department representatives to ensure all requirements as set forth by each department of the City are understood and adhered to.

Please be aware that submitting an application does not guarantee that approval to stage your proposed event within City of Fremantle will be granted.

Your completed event application and all supporting documents are to be sent to:

Attn: Events Officer

City of Fremantle

PO Box 807

Fremantle WA 6959

events@fremantle.wa.gov.au

Booking of City of Fremantle reserves, public space and buildings

You are responsible for booking the space required for your event allowing sufficient time for the application to be assessed and processed (as detailed in this event package).

Early bookings are essential to secure your requested date, as many locations in Fremantle are booked well in advance.

All bookings for the City's reserves are required to be of some benefit to Fremantle and its community and cannot be used solely as a marketing tool or branding of a particular product.

Public liability insurance

You are required to have public liability insurance cover for an amount no less than $10,000,000. This is in the best interests of both you as the organiser and the patrons who attend your event. A copy of your insurance certificate of currency must be included with your application.

Site plan

You must include a site plan with your application.

Risk management plan

You are required to submit a comprehensive risk management plan to the City when making your application to hold the event. The risk management plan should include a risk assessment matrix with a decision tree to identify management of potential risks that may occur during your event.

All event organisers must, without exception, submit a risk management plan at the time of making an application to hold an event in the City.

Evacuation diagrams/emergency management plans

It is necessary for you to prepare and submit an evacuation diagram and/or emergency management plan in accordance with the Health (Public Building) Regulations 1992. All staff and security personnel must be briefed in evacuation procedures prior to the event and evacuation maps are to be placed in key staff areas.

Rubbish

As the event organiser, you are responsible for all of the cleaning arrangements during and after your event. All sites are to be left completely free of rubbish and debris. Bins may be hired from the City's waste management services unit on 9432 9628.

Security

Satisfactory security arrangements are to be made and enforced by you for large events. These security personnel are to be experienced crowd control officers and should be from a licensed security company. You are to ensure that at least some security personnel are female for appropriate access to female toilets, dressing areas and for venue access.

The following is a guide for the numbers of security personnel you may require for your event:

- low risk events – (without alcohol) supply at least one security personnel for every 150 patrons.
- low risk events – (with alcohol) supply at least one security personnel for every 100 patrons
- moderate or high risk events – increase security personnel in consultation with the Western Australian Police or at higher ratios as appropriate to the known risks.

The City does not allow security dogs to be used under any circumstances.

Music

If any music is performed at your event and your event is for commercial purposes, you will need to apply to the Australasian Performing Rights Association (APRA) and Phonographic Performance Company of Australia (PPCA) for appropriate licenses. Contact APRA on (08) 9382 8299 and PPCA on (02) 9267 7877. In the event the music will be amplified, you may also be required to submit an application for a Regulation 18 non-complying event to the City's environmental health department. Further information follows in this event package.

Filming

Filming is permitted within Fremantle provided that fourteen days' notice is given and an appropriate application form submitted. Applications are not required for filming short segments (no longer than five minutes) for background or souvenir purposes, providing there is no disruption to staff, customers or the general public and the footage is for personal or student use.

Where filming requires the exclusive use of a City venue or reserve, an application to hire the required space should also be submitted, subject to the appropriate deadlines for submission as outlined in this event package being adhered to. Filming application forms can be supplied on request.

Traffic management

If your event requires road closures within the City, then a traffic management plan needs to be submitted by an accredited traffic management company along with an application for a road closure. The plan will be assessed by the City and if it is approved a signed copy of the application for a road closure will be given back to you to submit to Western Australian Police.

If road closures do form part of your event, it is a requirement that no less than seven days prior to your event, you provide written notification to the residents and businesses affected by the road closures and place an advert in one of the local newspapers. The City's events officer can provide you with a database of addresses to mail this notification to.

Refer to the Main Roads Traffic Management for Events Code of Practice January 2010 section 7.1 for further clarification.

Processions

If your event has less than fifty people and you wish to hold a procession through the streets of Fremantle, you will need to complete an application for a Permit to hold a Public Meeting and/or Procession- Section 7 of the Public Order in Streets Act 1984. This application is available from and should be submitted to Western Australian Police.

Parking requirements

There are a number of car parks throughout the City. If your event requires reserved parking bays these may be hired through the City's customer service team on 9432 9999.

Water events

If any part of your event is to be held on Navigable Waters, you may require approval from the Department of Transport – Navigational Safety Navigational.Safety@transport.wa.gov.au.

City of Fremantle Environmental Health Requirements

Noise

Under the Environmental Protection (Noise) Regulations 1997, if a proposed sporting, cultural or entertainment event should result in the emission of noise in contravention of the standard prescribed, an application for a non-complying event (regulation 18) is to be lodged to the Chief Executive Officer no later than 60 days before the event, accompanied by an application fee of $1000 (late fees apply).

Tents, marquees, spectator stands and stages – compliance with the Health (Public Buildings) Regulations 1992

Your event may be classed as a public building under the Health (Public Buildings) Regulations 1992. If this is the case, you will be required to submit an application to construct, alter or extend a public building (Form 2). Further applications may be required to certify any structures built at your event, such as an application for a public building certificate or certificate of structural compliance.

Electrical requirements

Depending on the nature of your event and where it is to be held, electricity may be available. For large outdoor events, you are responsible for ensuring that an adequate electricity supply is available for your event, which may require supplying extra generators if necessary at your own cost.

All generators, electrical cabling, switches, fuses and the like are to be kept clear of patrons. Cabling should be relocated or covered to prevent tripping hazards and properly and safely secured. Silent generators should be used if necessary so as not to contribute unduly to noise and vibration levels of the event.

All electrical installations (including power leads) must be appropriately tagged to and comply with current electrical safety requirements.

You will be required to submit an application for a Certificate of electrical compliance for a Public Building (Form 5).

Food and drink stalls

If you intend to provide or sell food or drink at your event you are required to obtain permission from the City's environmental health services unit. Fees apply for commercial operations unless the event is City run or sponsored.

A copy of the temporary food premises application can be made available to you on request. Trading in public places permits are no longer required and stalls may trade at an approved event without one. For more information contact the City's environmental health services team on 9432 9856 or email health@fremantle.wa.gov.au.

Applications must be received not less than fourteen days prior to the event. If your event has several food stalls/vehicles it is requested that a food coordinator is designated and that all applications are submitted together to assist in processing the applications.

Liquor consumption and sale of alcohol

If approved by Council, the sale and consumption of alcohol is only permitted for certain enclosed events, and a license must be obtained from the Department of Racing, Gaming and Liquor. The department requires a letter of approval from the landowners (the City of Fremantle) to be submitted with your application.

Contact the City's Events Officer for more information. The department will seek comment from the City and the Western Australian Police, when determining granting of the license.

A liquor license application may be obtained from:

Department of Racing Gaming and Liquor

87 Adelaide Terrace

Perth WA 6000

T: 9425 1888

W: www.rgl.wa.gov.au

Lodgment periods for an occasional liquor license application are:

- up to 500 people 14 days
- between 501 and 5000 people 30 days
- over 5000 60 days.

If a license to sell liquor has been approved then a copy of the license must be forwarded to the Events Officer before your event goes ahead. Persons must not bring their own alcohol to be consumed on any City of Fremantle property.

Toilet facilities

You are responsible for the provision of toilets sufficient for the number of patrons attending your event. The following table is a guide to the number of toilet facilities that must be provided. Note that if alcohol is not available at the event then the number of toilets may be reduced by 50 per cent. Unisex disabled toilet facilities must also be provided.

Total attendance	WCs	Male		Female
		Urinals	Hand basins	WCs	Hand basins
1 000	2	3	1	5	1
1 000–2 000	3	6	2	10	2
2 000–3 000	4	9	3	15	3
3 000–4 000	5	12	4	20	4
4 000–5 000	6	15	5	25	5
5 000–6 000	7	18	5	30	6
6 000–7 000	8	21	6	35	7
7 000–8 000	9	24	7	40	8
8 000–9 000	10	27	8	45	9
9 000–10 000	11	30	9	50	10

The provision of toilets and emergency exits are key factors in limiting patron numbers capacity at the event. The numbers of toilets may be adjusted if the event has unusual characteristics, that is, a large proportion of patrons leaving the venue for a considerable time span.

Adequate lighting is to be provided for toilets during the hours of darkness. Directional signage to toilets must be provided. It is mandatory that all exits on the site be illuminated, especially at the conclusion of the event.

Duration of the event	Percentage of the table values as above
More than 8 hours	100%
6–8 hours	80%
4–6 hours	75%
Less than 4 hours	70%

First aid

2 000	6	1
5 000	8	2

Marketing

City of Fremantle manages the place marketing brand Fremantle Story. We recommend you create your own event listing at www.fremantlestory.com.au.

Other opportunities for cross-promotion of your event may be available through other City of Fremantle channels if requested.

Creating an accessible event

People with disability comprise over 20% of the Western Australian population which means approximately 1 in 5 people have a disability in Western Australia. Therefore the likelihood of people with disability attending your event is high. The Disability Services Commission have published guidelines, Creating Accessible Events, which can be found in full on their website www.disability.wa.gov.au. The City encourages compliance with the recommendations outlined in these guidelines.

As a minimum, the City suggests event organisers consider the following recommendations in planning events:

Promotional material

- Have you used a plain font (such as Univers, Helvetica or Arial) that is a minimum of size 12 font in your communications?
- Does your promotional material state access options for the event, for example location of parking, public transport options, stairs access only, lift access or ramps available for wheelchair use?
- Have you encouraged patrons to make contact ahead of time if they have any access requirements?
- Does your promotional material advertise alternative formats being available?

Accessible parking bays

- Does your event have access to an accessible parking bay close to the event entrance (less than 40m)?
- Is the accessible parking bay/s clearly identified?

Continuous accessible paths of travel

- Is there a continuous path of travel free of obstacles from the accessible parking bay and/or set-down area to the event entrance?
- Does your event have a continuous path of travel free of obstacles to services/activities within the event perimeter?
- Is the path a firm, non-slip surface?

Toilets

- Does the event have a unisex accessible toilet?
- Does the accessible toilet have a clear space of 850mm in front of the toilet door?

Other

- Does your event have clear, directional signage to key services such as toilets?
- Have you considered providing an Auslan interpreter for spoken portions of the event to include the deaf community?

Refer to the full Creating Accessible Events checklist on Disability Services Commission's website for further recommendations.

Creating a sustainable event

The City has created a guideline for sustainable events which can be found in full here:

Sustainable Events Guidelines

We also recommend you consider following the City's sustainable events check list to reduce your environmental impact when producing your event:

Sustainable Events Checklist

Frequently asked questions

Is there a limit to how many people can attend an event?

The applicant is to specify the number of people they propose to attract to each day of the event so that the correct facilities can be planned for the event. However, if there are more than 5000 then you must comply with Health (Public Buildings) Regulations 1992.

Is it necessary to obtain approval from the local authority to hold a public event?

Any event that is held on City of Fremantle land and involves the public must have approval from the City.

What permits are necessary for the event to gain approval?

The events package outlines which permits may be necessary for your event to gain approval.

What considerations are necessary in choosing the appropriate site for the event?

In choosing the appropriate site, consider:

- is the site readily accessible for vehicles on and off the site
- are overhead power lines likely to cause a problem
- are trees on the site likely to cause a problem
- is power and water readily available
- does the date of your event conflict with another
- time of year – will the weather impact on your event

- noise issues – if your event is close to residents and businesses

Can we have animals at our event?

Animals, especially those with cloven hooves are not allowed on reserves in the City. However, an event may have an animal farm for children. Contact the City's environmental health services unit for petting zoo guidelines on 9432 9856 or email health@fremantle.wa.gov.au. Petting zoos must not be set up near food stalls or vehicles.

Is a risk management plan necessary?

In order for you, the event organiser to fulfill your duty of care when holding your event, you must ensure that the safety of the public is covered and all necessary precautions taken. This is to be outlined in the risk management plan.

In relation to insurance for events what do organisers need to consider?

Public liability insurance must be for at least ten million Australian dollars ($10 000 000), which should cover any claims for injury arising. You should ask your insurers about liability for injuries, acts or omission and for financial obligations incurred in responding to major emergencies.

Should consideration be given to meet the needs of health and emergency services to gain access as well as from the venue?

When planning your event you must ensure that emergency services personnel have a site allocated to them and that there are no hazards, which would hinder their entrance or exit from the site.
