ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

The City of Fremantle acknowledges the Whadjuk people as the Traditional Owners of the greater Fremantle/Walyalup area and we recognise that their cultural and heritage beliefs are still important today.

Introduction

The Freedom of Information Act 1992 (WA) (FOI Act) provides for public access to documents, and for the public to ensure that personal information in documents is accurate, complete, up to date, and not misleading.

Part 5, section 94 of the FOI Act requires the City of Fremantle (the City) to prepare and publish an annual Information Statement. The Information Statement must contain:

- A statement of the structure and functions of the City;
- A description of the ways in which the functions of the City affect members of the public;
- A description of how members of the public may participate in the formulation of City policy, and the performance of the City's functions;
- A description of the kinds of documents that are usually held by the City, including which can be inspected, purchased, and obtain free of charge by members of the public;
- A description of the City's arrangements for giving members of the public access to documents, including the City's library facilities;
- A description of the City's procedures for giving members of the public access to documents, in accordance with Part 2 of the FOI Act; and
- A description of the City's procedures for amending personal information in documents, in accordance with Part 3 of the FOI Act.

This information statement is published by the City of Fremantle in accordance with the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act 1992.

This document can be provided in alternative formats upon request. Further information can be provided, between Mondays and Fridays, by contacting the FOI Coordinator via (phone) 1300 693 736 or (email) info@fremantle.wa.gov.au.

Our Vision for Fremantle

A liveable city that is vibrant, socially connected and desirable

A thriving city with a prosperous and innovative economy

A creative city that is inspiring, diverse and dares to be different

A resilient city that plans for the future and is empowered to take action

An inclusive city that welcomes, celebrates and cares for all people, cultures and abilities

Our Mission

We are for the community

Services and projects are delivered through a commitment to our organisational vision and values which guide the City's purpose and how we operate as an organisation to deliver on Council's vision for the community. As an organisation we are committed to achieving our vision of developing a strong reputation and a stronger future and we will do this through our mission of being for the community.

Our Values

Our vision and mission is underpinned by a set of values that guides our decision making to ensure accountability in all that we do;

Collaboration: We are stronger and better working together.

Integrity: By doing it right and doing it well, we are accountable and deliver on the trust placed in us.

Inclusive: We value and welcome everyone to a culture which is fulfilling and brings us a sense of enjoyment.

Making a difference: We adapt, learn, and grow through curious thinking and courageous action.

Key Focus Areas

The City of Fremantle Strategic Community Plan 2024-2034 outlines the key areas of focus and the core outcomes the City seek to achieve.

The plan, along with other key informing strategies and plans to align projects and services that effectively and sustainably deliver community outcomes, are available on the City's website.

City Structure

The role of the City's administration is implementing council decisions and carry out the functions of a local government. The local government's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is responsible for managing the local government's administration and operations. The role of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is described in section 5.41 of the Local Government Act 1995.

The City of Fremantle's Executive Leadership Team consists of the Chief Executive Officer, Director City Business, Director Creative Arts & Community, Director Infrastructure, and Director Planning, Place & Urban Development.

The Executive Leadership Team is responsible for their respective areas, consisting of:

- Office of the Chief Executive Officer
 - Governance
 - People and Culture
 - Strategic Communications and Stakeholder Relations
- City Business
 - Commercial Services
 - Economic Development and Events
 - Financial Services
 - Information Technology Systems and Strategy

- Creative Arts & Community
 - Arts
 - Community Development
 - Customer Experience and Learning
- Infrastructure
 - Building Facilities & Sustainable Services
 - Infrastructure Engineering
 - Parks and Landscape
 - Waste and Fleet
- Planning, Place & Urban Development
 - City Planning
 - City Design
 - Regulatory Services

City Functions and Services

The City of Fremantle provide a range of services to the community, including:

- Animal Control and Pet Registration
- City Facilities
- Community Support
- Community Safety
- Compliance
- Environmental Health
- Festivals and Events
- Fremantle Arts Centre
- Fremantle Community Legal Centre
- Fremantle Leisure Centre
- Fremantle Library
- Fremantle Recycling Centre
- Fremantle Visitors Centre
- Parking and Transport
- Parks and Landscapes
- Planning and Building
- Residential and Commercial Waste
- Roads and Footpaths

Council Functions and Structure

The role of Council is to govern the local government's affairs and, as the local government's governing body, is responsible for the performance of the local government's functions. The role of Council is described in section 2.7 of the Local Government Act 1995.

Local Government Act 1995

Section 2.7(2)

The council's governing role includes the following:

- a. overseeing the allocation of the local government's finances and resources;
- b. determining the local government's policies;
- c. planning strategically for the future of the district;
- d. determining the services and facilities to be provided by the local government;
- e. selecting the CEO and reviewing the CEO's performance; and
- f. providing strategic direction to the CEO.

The Council is responsible for setting the strategic direction, informed by community aspirations, which the City's administration then implements. All Council and Committee meetings are conducted in accordance with the Local Government Act 1995. Meeting dates, times, agendas and minutes are published on the City's website.

A local government may make local laws that are necessary or convenient for it to perform any of its functions. A local government is to administer its local laws and may do all other things that are necessary or convenient to be done for, or relating to, performing its functions.

Elected members, including the Mayor, are elected for four-year terms, with half of the Councillors' terms concluding at each ordinary election.

Mayor

The City of Fremantle Mayor is popularly elected by the electors of the district. The Mayor's duties include providing leadership and guidance to the community, carrying out civic and ceremonial duties, speaking on behalf of the Council, liaising with the CEO on the Council's affairs and performance, and presiding at meetings.

Councillors

Councillors represent the interests of electors, ratepayers and residents. Councillors are elected to wards but are required to consider the interests of the entire community in their decision making.

They also facilitate communication between the community and the Council, provide leadership and guidance to the community, and participate in decision making at Council and Committee meetings.

Elected members, including the Mayor, are elected for four-year terms, with half of the Councillors' terms concluding at each ordinary election.

Council Meetings

The Council meets on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month in the council chambers at Walyalup Koort. Council meetings are open to the public, with opportunity for the public to ask questions and make statements. The public may be asked to leave the chamber at times if Councillors need to discuss confidential items.

Agendas are published on the Wednesday evening before the meeting. The City is required to publish unconfirmed minutes within 14 days following the council meeting and 7 days following committee meetings.

Committee Meetings and Working Groups

The Council has established committees in accordance with the Local Government Act 1995, including the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee and the CEO Performance Review Committee.

Working Groups are also established by Council, for the purpose of working collaboratively to develop a strategy, plan, or to develop a specific project.

Terms of reference, committee membership, and a description of the functions of the committees and working groups can be found on the City's website.

Delegated Authority

The Chief Executive Officer and relevant officers have delegated authority from Council to make decisions on a number of specified administrative and policy matters. These delegations are listed in the Council Delegated Authority Register, available on the City's website, and are reviewed annually by Council.

Community Participation

Council Meetings

Members of the public have a number of opportunities to put forward their views on particular issues before Council, including:

1. Deputations - With the permission of the Mayor or Presiding Member, a member of the public can address a Committee or Council personally or on behalf of a resident or group of residents. More information about deputations is available on the City's website.
2. Public Question Time - Members of the public are permitted to speak and ask questions on an item during public question time.
3. Petitions - Written petitions can be addressed to Council on any issue within the Council's jurisdiction. Procedure requires the petition to be presented through a Councillor (Ward representative) at a Council meeting.
4. Residents are notified of some Development Applications by advertising in the local newspaper, written notification or sign on-site requiring the approval of Council. A number of applications are exempt from public notification. When an application is publicly notified, residents have the opportunity both to write to Council expressing their views of the application and to subsequently personally address the Council before a decision is made.
5. Written requests - A member of the public can write to Council on any Council policy, activity or service.
6. Elected Members - Members of the public can contact the Elected Members to discuss any issue relevant to Council, with their emails available on the City's website.

Community Engagement/Consultation

The City of Fremantle consults with its residents on particular issues that affect their community by way of advertising in the local papers, calling public meetings, attending local Ward meetings, questionnaires, and providing for comment on submissions.

MySay Fremantle is the City's online community engagement platform where you can review and contribute feedback on projects open for consultation.

Complaints and Feedback

Any complaints or feedback/suggestion regarding any aspect of the Council, its operations, staff or policies will be accepted and dealt with under the Complaints Management System or Customer Service Charter, as appropriate. Further information can be obtained from the Service & Information Centre on 1300 693 736, in person at the Walyalup Civic Centre, or on the City's website.
