Prayer for the Armed Forces of Australia

Almighty God, the father and protector of all who trust in you, we commend to your fatherly goodness the men and women who serve this nation in the armed forces by sea and land and in the air.

Be their strength when they are set in the midst of danger, and make them bold, through life and death, to put their trust in you through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in the green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

Requiem

Amid angry guns and wailing shellsthey stood in hourly peril of their lives.

Our ‘knights of Gallipoli’.

They faced down fury.
And, like in conflicts since,
gave their lives for greater love—
for justice and for liberty.

Cold in the earth,
but warm still in our hearts.

We will remember them.

We will work to keep alive
that gallant spirit of devoted sacrifice.

We will honour ANZAC friends who risked themselves,
who suffered for their courage.

We won’t forget you.
Or the agony you’ve known.

And, bearing all your scars
of war, we’ll learn to speak in sober terms of taking up our duty.

We will remember.

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders Fields
the poppies blow
Between the crosses,
row on row,
That mark our place;
and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead.
Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn,
saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved,
and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch, be yours to hold it high
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep,
though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

The Ode of Remembrance

Nyoongar

Bala yuart manjung koorliny,
Yeye ngulluckiny alla nidja
nyinniny manjung woort koorliny

The Ode of Remembrance

English

They shall grow not old,
As we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them,
Nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun
And in the morning
We will remember them.

Lest we forget.

Response

We will remember them.

New Zealand National Anthem

God of Nations at Thy feet,
In the bonds of love we meet,

Hear our voices, we entreat,
God defend our free land.

Guard Pacific's triple star
From the shafts of strife
and war,

Make her praises heard afar,
God defend New Zealand.

Australian National Anthem

Australians all let us rejoice
For we are one and free

We've golden soil and wealth for toil
Our home is girt by sea

Our land abounds
in nature's gifts
Of beauty rich and rare

In history's page,
let every stage
Advance Australia Fair

In joyful strains then
let us sing
Advance Australia Fair
